

The Alberta Teachers' Association

Presents

Can We Talk? Communities and teachers supporting mental wellness

Monday, May 9, 2011

Capri Centre, 3310 50 Avenue, Red Deer, Alberta

2011 Conference of the Committee on the Well-Being of Children and Youth

REGISTRATION—There is no fee, but registration is mandatory. Please direct your completed registration form and any inquiries to the conference program assistant, Brenda Dobie. Her contact information is as follows: fax 780 455-6481; phone 780 447-9400 (Edmonton), toll free 1-800-232-7208; email brenda.dobie@ata.ab.ca.

Name (please print): _____ Email: _____

Organization: _____

Phone: _____ Alternate Phone: _____

Can We Talk? Conference Schedule

Time	Activity
0800-0900	Hot Breakfast Buffet (please check box to indicate attendance) Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>
0900-0950	Keynote: David Cory—Emotional Intelligence Skills for Success in Work and Life Schooling mostly focuses on developing cognitive intelligence, but leaves almost completely to chance the development of the knowledge, skills and attitudes required to cope with daily demands and pressures. How do we help youth develop emotional intelligence skills?
1000-1050 1100-1150	Breakout Sessions —Presenters from organizations including Alberta Health Services, Canadian Mental Health Association, Central Alberta Refugee Effort, and Safe and Caring Schools and Communities share insights, experiences and information.
1200-1300	Hot Lunch Buffet (please check box to indicate attendance) Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>
	Lunch Hour Keynote: Dr Phil McRae— Emerging Technologies in a Digital Age: We Shape Them and They Shape Us What are the implications of emerging technologies in our digitally saturated society, and how they might be impacting our personal well-being and that of our students, classrooms, and diverse communities?
1300-1415	World Café Event
1430-1515	Mat Halton— The Pre/Post Project A dynamic fusion of music and storytelling that introduces audiences to the lives of marginalized urban youth.
1515-1530	ATA President Carol Henderson—Closing Comments