

Application for $500 bursary

Submission deadline: May 1, 2010

The Trust encourages Alberta teachers to improve skills and knowledge in subjects they teach by enrolling in courses in the upcoming summer or during the 2010/11 school year. Applicants must hold a permanent Alberta teaching certificate. To apply, complete this form, sign it and mail it to the Trust at the address below. All entries must be postmarked before the deadline above. Faxes and e-mails will not be accepted.

CONDITIONS:

- Teachers who have received a Trust bursary or grant in the past three years are ineligible.
- The names of 30 (or more) bursary recipients will be drawn from the list of qualified applicants (see above). All applicants will be informed of the results of the draw. School jurisdictions and ATA local associations will be notified of the names of the successful applicants.
- The names of the successful applicants will be posted on the Trust webpage.
- Bursaries can be applied toward tuition costs only. Each bursary will be paid after the Trust administrator receives a letter from the recipient, along with proof of course completion and an original receipt for tuition paid.
